Dear Guest,

We're excited about the 14-Night Antarctica Cruise aboard Celebrity Infinity® departing Buenos Aires, Argentina on February 18, and we look forward to welcoming you on board.

Before we set sail, we have some important information and itinerary updates to tell you about.

Due to a technical issue with the ship's propulsion system, as a precaution, we will have to reduce our maximum speed by a few knots. We assure you, there is no safety issue with the vessel; however, due to the reduced speed, we have to modify our itinerary. Some ports of call will have shortened visit times, while some will have more time.

We also had to remove our visit to Puerto Madryn, Argentina from the itinerary. Due to the cancellation of this port of call, we are issuing each guest a refund in the amount equal to one day of your vacation.

For your convenience, we've included the original and revised itineraries below.
