Dear Guest,

We look forward to welcoming you aboard for your 7-Night Alaska cruise sailing from Seattle, Washington. Before we depart, we have some important information to share. Celebrity Cruises has been working closely with health and government authorities, in each country we sail from, to outline a clear path for cruising with new health and safety measures. As we thoughtfully plan our return to service, we are evaluating all current itineraries and the status of travel conditions around the world. This means some of our sailings will need to be modified.

Recently, the US Government passed legislation that will permit us to sail in Alaska without the necessity of calling on a port in Canada, which remains closed to cruise ships. This same legislation inadvertently listed the Celebrity Cruises ships originally scheduled to sail in Alaska, which did not include Celebrity Summit®. After evaluating the situation, we have determined that in order to comply with the new law, Celebrity Millennium® must sail roundtrip from Seattle in Alaska.

Specific to your future sailing, our renewed Alaska season will require a change of ship to the recently refreshed and revolutionized Celebrity Millennium® along with an adjustment to our itinerary. Our visit to Skagway, Alaska will now be replaced with Icy Strait Point, Alaska. For your convenience, we've included your revised itinerary below.
