

Dear Guest,

We hope you've been enjoying your time aboard Celebrity Millennium. Below, we have an important itinerary update to share.

As our Captain announced, along with our meteorologist, we are closely monitoring Typhoon Dujuan, which is expected to generate rough seas and strong winds along our route to Mt Fuji (Shimizu), with potential impacts on port operations. To safely navigate around the storm, we will remain alongside Kagoshima for an additional day, allowing for a safer passage toward Tokyo.

Unfortunately, this delay will require us to miss Mt Fuji (Shimizu) due to its proximity to Dujuan's projected path. We apologize for this last-minute change caused by the weather.

While we know it's not the original itinerary we planned, we want you to know we always have the safety of our guests and crew as our top priority. Please know being onboard is one of the safest places to be, as we can move out of the way of any inclement weather. Rest assured that our dedicated crew is here to ensure you have an exceptional cruise, despite the weather's impact.
