HOW TO REDEEM PREMIER PASS

Priority boarding and debarkation*

Get VIP treatment by using the Premier Pass embarkation line to board the ship first. Look for signage as you enter the boarding area. Staff at the terminal will have a list of the names of guests who have purchased the Premier Pass. For debarkation, you'll receive special luggage tags on the last night of the cruise and instructions in your stateroom about how to get off the ship. In your ports of call, your SeaPass® will give you access to the priority suite lines.

Welcome bottle of champagne

Your bottle of Veuve Clicquot will be in your stateroom on embarkation day.

Unlimited internet for two devices

On embarkation day, connect your phone to the ship's Wi-Fi. To activate your internet service, just follow the instructions. If you have questions or need help, please contact iLounge.

Inside access tour for two guests

You'll receive your passes for the Inside Access Tour in your stateroom on embarkation day.

Lunch with an officer

Details about the location of your lunch, the date, and the time will be provided in your stateroom on embarkation day. If you have any questions about the location, date, or time of your lunch, please ask the dining team on board.

This will happen during the Officer's Lunch.

Exclusive food and wine pairing

The sommelier will pair complimentary wine with 1 dinner on your cruise. Information about your tasting will be available in your cabin on embarkation day.

Laundry service (one bag per stateroom)

There will be a laundry bag in your stateroom. Your stateroom attendant will collect it once during your sailing, and return your items washed and folded.

*Priority embarkation/debarkation may be restricted in certain ports due to local laws. Ports with restrictions include: Japan and Hong Kong, Australia and New Zealand, Singapore and Canada.

Celebrity Cruises reserves the right to change the officer's lunch dining time without prior notice.
